

Chasmanthium latifolium
Northern Sea Oats

Excellent plant for naturalizing, erosion control, and as specimen plant. Attracts birds and butterflies. Used in cut and dried floral arrangements. Plant in partial shade to full sun; tolerates some drought, grows well in moist soil. Clumps will spread nicely in moist, shady locations; will reseed.

Height: 3' – 4' Spread: 2' – 3'