

Callicarpa americana var. lactea
White Beautyberry

An abundance of white berries in fall makes this native plant quite a show! Ideal for a naturalistic setting in sun or shade, damp or dry soil, it is a deciduous shrub with coarse texture. Tiny pink flowers cover the stems in the spring.

Height: 4' – 8'. Spread: 4' – 6'