

Monarda citriodora

Lemon Mint or Purple Horsemint

This annual to short-lived perennial self sows easily. The fragrant pinkish/purple flowers whorls at the top of the stem. Lemon Mint flowers throughout the summer. It does well in most soil types, from occasionally wet to dry. Butterflies, bees, and hummingbirds all utilize Lemon Mint as a nectar source.

Height: 1' – 3'. Spread: 1' – 2'