

Ratibida pinnata

Gray-headed Coneflower

A multitude of yellow flowers in late summer and fall make this Coneflower an excellent perennial for borders or naturalized areas and as a cutting flower. Best used in groups or masses. Full sun, dry or moist soil, varied types of soil. Spreads very easily. Excellent for butterflies and birds.

Height: 3' – 6'. Spread: 1 1/2' – 2'